HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1937.

NUMBER 9.

AUTO DRIVER CRASHES TRAIN

Sunday night about 10:30 there was a terrific crash at the crossing of the Santa Fe in the western edge of Hamlin.

The freight train was taking water and the cars were across crossing of the road leading toward the Plaster Mills. Trainmen and the nearest neighbors, Mr. Carlton and others quickly assembled to see what the crash was. They found a man badly hurt, bleeding profusely, and a considerably crushed Pick-Up truck.

At first all they could get from the man was that his name was "Paul"—finally someone recognized him as Paul Willingham, who resides west of Hamlin, and he was able to say "Yes, Paul Willingham." Paul is a brother of Tarleton and Ray Willingham.

He was taken first to the Hamlin Hospital and later to the Abilene Hospital. It was found that his chief injury was to a hand, which had arteries severed. He also was badly bruised and cut, and from late information he is recovering rapidly.

Evidently Paul was coming facing the full moon, perhaps, saw a crossing train of box cars and maybe thought it had passed over and never saw the flat cars that were stopped on the crossing, in time to avoid the crash. This is the conjecture of those who came first to the scene.

At this crossing the road comes to the track at a slight angle, pointing toward town when one comes up from the west. This threw the right front of the truck against the flat car, crushing in the engine, and back into the cab on that side. It would have been a fatal accident had the left side received the blow as did the right. Evidently the man had set his brakes and somewhat checked the speed, or else the entire truck would have been demolished.

The government is trying to eliminate grade crossings altogether, and it seems that this must be done to eliminate entirely the danger. In the case of Paul Willingham hitting the train, it could have happened to anyone under the circumstances, at night. His friends are happy that he came out as well as he did.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cain and baby John Paul, went to Alba, Texas, to visit Paul's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cain. The attractiveness of the trees, the squirrels, quail and fresh hams were too much for Mrs. Cain and baby to leave—so they tarried a few days after Paul came home.

SANTA FE BUILDING MORE

Colorado will gain five towns, and Oklahoma one, upon completion of the 111 miles of new line being constructed by the Santa Fe Railway, between Las Animas, Colorado, and Boise City, Oklahoma. In addition, one inland town, heretofore without railroad service, will be on the new line.

The new stations are Castenada, in Cimmaron County, Okla.; Bisonte, Ramp and Frick, in Baca County, Colorado; Ruxton and Gilpin in Bent County, Colorado. The new railroad touches the old town of Campo, in Baca County, Colorado, and has been built through Springfield, Baca County, Colo., seat, which is on the Santa-Pritchett branch of the Santa Fe.

The new line will be turned over for operation February 1.

The new town of Castenada was named for an officer-historian in Coronado's army, which traversed much of this territory. Bisonte is named for the buffalo which roamed the country. Ramp is Spanish for a smooth country. Frick was named for a director of the Santa Fe. Ruxton is named for Capt. Frederick Ruxton, Colorado explorer. Gilpin was named in honor of the first governor of Colorado.

Completion of the Boise City-Las Animas line will save from 142 to 226 miles in the movement of freight over the Santa Fe to and from Colorado, from and to points in Texas, and on portions of the Santa Fe in Oklahoma and New Mexico. It will also shorten the distance from Amarillo to Denver and intermediate points somewhat over 25 miles compared with any other railroad.

While the Santa Fe lost 41 miles of lines from its rail system in 1935, it overcame that in 1936 and has 286 additional miles of lines. The small decrease in 1935 was due to minor adjustments in track. The mileage gains made in 1936 include the construction of the 111-mile line between Las Animas and Boise City, and an arrangement for the purchase of 216 miles of line from the Frisco Railroad, from Ft. Worth to Menard in Texas. These additions give the Santa Fe a total of 13,586 miles of railway.

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Witt and sons, Dean and Gean, went to Lubbock, Sunday to visit Mr. Witt's parents, Prof. and Mrs. M. E. Witt.

Mrs. Mac Rippetoe spent Christmas with her parents at Lipan, Texas, returning Sunday.

J. B. Adkins, one of Hamlin's esteemed pioneers, was in this week to renew his Herald for 1937. He said he had enjoyed a good Christmas, received many tokens of remembrance from loved ones, but was disappointed that his daughter, Mrs. Roy Stine of Vernon, could not come home. She was hindered by the death of Roy's father, who died Christmas day.

Mrs. L. E. Farris and son, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Newt, of near Slaton, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Gilreath and daughter, Miss Doris, of Bronte, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Owen and daughters, Misses Billy Christine and Macel Marie, and son, Russell, of Electra, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Johnson for Christmas. The guests were children and grandchildren of Mrs. Owen who makes her home with Mrs. Johnson.

The Herald learns that Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McLendon of the Neinda community have moved to Cisco, where they will make their home. They have a daughter, Mrs. Bookman, living in Cisco. Jim and Bryan McLendon also will be with them. This is one of the fine, pioneer families of that community and their host of friends regret to see them move. Mr. McLendon suffered a terrible hurt by a mule several years ago—lost one hand and most of his arm.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Anderson and children spent Christmas in Dallas visiting Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Andrus. Mrs. Harold Ashley and baby, a sister of Mrs. Anderson returned with them to spend a week.

Mrs. F. D. Well and daughters, Virginia, Phyllis and Patsy, visited Mr. Wells at Eunice for their Christmas. Mr. Wells is at the oil fields at Eunice. Mrs. Wells was accompanied by Mrs. Calvin Smith and son, Cal, Jr., to see Mr. Smith, who is also in the oil industry at Eunice. While at Midland they visited Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Donnell who were hurt in a car wreck recently. Mr. O'Donnell is reported doing well considering both knees were broken.

He was taken to a hospital in Mineral Wells for treatment. The Barrow ambulance went for him Saturday. If no complications set up he should be out in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. (Whitey) Griffin and children of Ackerly, in Martin County, came down to visit Mrs. Griffin's mother, Mrs. A. G. Hudson and others for Christmas. Mr. Griffin is with a gin company at Ackerly. To keep them acquainted with the ever changing Hamlin, they will get the Herald during 1937.

MISS EMILY ALLEN MARRIED AUGUST 5

It might be interesting to many Hamlin people to know that Miss Emily Allen, former teacher of Home Economics in Hamlin, was married secretly on August 5, in Houston, Texas. This information is obtained by a social item appearing in a daily paper, dated at Sonora, Texas, Dec. 25, 1936, where Miss Allen was instructor in Home Making, in the High School.

The lucky man is Mr. Warner E. Colvin, formerly of Stamford. He is connected with agricultural work, having been at the Woodlake Government farms while Miss Allen was there as director of home economics. Their home is to be at the Springbrook Farm near Georgetown, where Mr. Colvin is engaged in pecan culture and stock raising.

Miss Elsie Wienke enjoyed a family reunion in Hamlin at a Christmas tree and dinner at the Morgan Hotel. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wienke of Old Glory, her sisters, Miss Roxie of Levelland, and Mrs. Garrett Spitzer of Sagerton, were present. Also one brother, Roy of Sagerton. However, Leslie was unable to be here because of being injured in a recent auto accident.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Easterwood, of Athens, Texas, two of the pioneer people of Hamlin, came for a Christmas visit with their sister, Mrs. Curtis Martin and family. Mr. Easterwood was once in the mercantile business here, a partner of the late D. J. Payne. He had with him a fair sized booklet, of early scenes of Hamlin—landmarks, now and many of them have passed from sight by removing remodeling, or fire. Easterwood was a great booster for Hamlin and still loves the little city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Rogers of San Antonio, came over with their sister, Mrs. R. F. Easterwood of Athens, to spend some of their Christmas in Hamlin with their sister, Mrs. Curtis Martin and family. Mr. Rogers is in the mechanical department of the San Antonio Light, one of the leading daily newspapers of Texas.

Mrs. S. D. (Red) Terrell returned just at Christmas from her mother, Mrs. M. J. Ligon, who was ill at her home in Wilson, Oklahoma.

GOOD RESOLUTIONS

Let us all resolve: First, to attain the grace of silence; Second, to deem all fault-finding that does no good a sin, and to resolve, when we are happy ourselves, not to poison the atmosphere for our neighbors by calling on them to remark every painful and disagreeable feature of their daily life; Third, to practice the grace and virtue of praise.—Mrs. H. The trouble with the fellow who says that the young people are worse than they used to be, is that he is viewing the matter from two different points. He looks upon young people that he remembers about, through the eyes of youth and sympathy. He is looking upon the young people of today through the eyes of age. The view points are not the same.

WOMAN, 104, IS CLAIMED

San Marcos, Dec. 8. — Funeral services were held at Dripping Springs Monday for Mrs. Rebecca Johnson, 104, who came to Texas the year of the revolution.

She died Sunday at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Jennie Colley at San Antonio.

Mrs. Johnson was the mother of Mrs. A. J. Garrett, 81, and the grandmother of J. M. Garrett, both of San Marcos.

Born in Louisiana in 1832, Mrs. Johnson came to Texas at the age of four in 1836, settling with her parents in Walker county. Later she moved to Driftwood, Hays County.

Mrs. Johnson left Texas 35 years ago, moving to New Mexico. The past five years, however, she had lived with her granddaughter in San Antonio.

She was the mother of 14 children, five of who are still living. They are: Mrs. A. J. Garrett of San Marcos, Mrs. Cenia Miles of Neosho, Mo., Mrs. Becky Pruitt of Alamogordo, N. M., Mrs. Alice Woods of Engel, N. M., and Mrs. Willie Brown of California.—Austin American.

The above clipping was handed the Herald by K. Garrett of this city, who recently went to Eden and San Angelo, and failed to get to the funeral of his famous grandmother. Mr. Garrett says there were five generations of Mrs. Johnson's family at the time of her death.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hall of Hubbard were here Monday to visit their nephew, D. A. Brown and family.

Mrs. J. A. Wilhite of Harlingen came up to spend Christmas at home with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. S. MaGee.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Roland and little Miss Mary Lee of Port Arthur, came up Christmas day for a short visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Albritton. They returned Sunday.

—The Herald 1 Year for $1.00.

O. D. Conner, a member of the 77th Field Artillery, at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma, who has been on a 90 days furlough in Hamlin with his bride, returned to his organization this week. He has been a regular army soldier for several years. His father, Tom Conner, is making him a present of the Herald for the first six months of 1937.

Strength During MIDDLE LIFE

Strength is extra-important for women going through the change of life. Then the body needs the very best nourishment to fortify it against the changes that are taking place.

In such cases, Cardui has proved helpful to many women. It increases the appetite and aids digestion, favoring more complete transformation of food into living tissue, resulting in improved nutrition and building up and strengthening of the whole system.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Shanks and children, Rex Jr. and Ann, of Laredo, Texas, and Miss Margaret Robbins, of Clyde, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Crowley over the week-end. Mrs. Shanks is a sister of Mrs. Crowley.

The Herald had a pretty card from Martin McCain this week saying that they are showing Mrs. McCain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Sauls, the sights. The card showed the beautiful "Bil Milam" hotel—garden terrace, with the beauty of flowers n'everything.

Miss Oma Lee Herd, who is in training at the Abilene Hospital, spent this week at home with her father, Bob Herd, and Hamlin friends.

Earl Temple, of Lamesa, was here Friday and Saturday to visit his father, W. N. Temple, who has been ill for several weeks.

BIG CAROL BENSON

Carol Benson, one of the Cowboys' most dependable ends, will be playing his last game for Hardin-Simmons university when the Cowboys meet the Muckers in El Paso Jan. 1.

Benson, a contribution from Hamlin, is one of the fourteen veterans to be graduated next spring and one of the three powerful ends to be lost to Hardin-Simmons.

In addition to stellar roles on the gridiron Benson has been one of Kimbrough's mainstays on the basketball court and faces one more good season in the gym before graduation. Kimbrough has been saving his football boys from possible injury on the court but after the El Paso Sunbowl game will give them free rein.

Paralleling his prowess on the basketball floor is the record of which Kimbrough spoke recently when he said of Benson, "Consistently good at the closing in on loose passes. A lot of ability and fight—well directed."

Beware The Cough From a common cold That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies;
such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.
Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.
Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter.
Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle.
Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams of

Monroe (?) Doctrine

WE CALL it the "Monroe Doctrine"
—that document which says
"Hands off!" when foreign nations
seem covetous of more land in either North or South America. But it might
more properly be called the "Adams
Doctrine," for John Quincy Adams, Monroe's secretary of state, was the man who saw the need for it and formulated it even though it did appear in Monroe's handwriting in his message to congress in December, 1823.But if you want to go back even farther for its origin, then a pretty Russian baroness comes in for her share of responsibility. Her name was Barbara Juliane von Vlettinghoff-Scheel
and she was the youthful wife of elderly Baron von Krudener, Russian ambassador to Berlin. Also she became the sweetheart of Alexander I, czar of all the Russias, and under her spell he supported her scheme for a Holy Alliance
by which, she believed, the world could be run according to the principles of Christian charity.All the sovereigns of Europe, except the pope, the king of England and the sultan of Turkey, joined the Holy Alliance, thereby pledging themselves to aid each other when the need arose.
When Spain lost her American colonies and called upon the Holy Alliance to help her get them back, George Canning, British foreign minister, proposed that the United States join with England in opposing the plan to reconquer the Spanish Americas.John Quincy Adams, however, didn't want the United States to "come in as a cock-boat in the wake of the British man-of-war." So he proposed that an independent declaration of policy be issued. It was the famous Monroe Doctrine which brought about the collapse of the Holy Alliance.They say Helen of Troy had "the face that launched a thousand ships."
But the pretty face of Baroness von Krudener has been responsible for
keeping the fleets of the United States,
for the last century, ready to back up
the "Monroe Doctrine" which was formulated by John Quincy Adams.

HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1937.

NUMBER 9.

AUTO DRIVER CRASHES TRAIN

Sunday night about 10:30 there was a terrific crash at the crossing of the Santa Fe in the western edge of Hamlin.

The freight train was taking water and the cars were across crossing of the road leading toward the Plaster Mills. Trainmen and the nearest neighbors, Mr. Carlton and others quickly assembled to see what the crash was. They found a man badly hurt, bleeding profusely, and a considerably crushed Pick-Up truck.

At first all they could get from the man was that his name was "Paul"—finally someone recognized him as Paul Willingham, who resides west of Hamlin, and he was able to say "Yes, Paul Willingham." Paul is a brother of Tarleton and Ray Willingham.

He was taken first to the Hamlin Hospital and later to the Abilene Hospital. It was found that his chief injury was to a hand, which had arteries severed. He also was badly bruised and cut, and from late information he is recovering rapidly.

Evidently Paul was coming facing the full moon, perhaps, saw a crossing train of box cars and maybe thought it had passed over and never saw the flat cars that were stopped on the crossing, in time to avoid the crash. This is the conjecture of those who came first to the scene.

At this crossing the road comes to the track at a slight angle, pointing toward town when one comes up from the west. This threw the right front of the truck against the flat car, crushing in the engine, and back into the cab on that side. It would have been a fatal accident had the left side received the blow as did the right. Evidently the man had set his brakes and somewhat checked the speed, or else the entire truck would have been demolished.

The government is trying to eliminate grade crossings altogether, and it seems that this must be done to eliminate entirely the danger. In the case of Paul Willingham hitting the train, it could have happened to anyone under the circumstances, at night. His friends are happy that he came out as well as he did.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cain and baby John Paul, went to Alba, Texas, to visit Paul's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cain. The attractiveness of the trees, the squirrels, quail and fresh hams were too much for Mrs. Cain and baby to leave—so they tarried a few days after Paul came home.

SANTA FE BUILDING MORE

Colorado will gain five towns, and Oklahoma one, upon completion of the 111 miles of new line being constructed by the Santa Fe Railway, between Las Animas, Colorado, and Boise City, Oklahoma. In addition, one inland town, heretofore without railroad service, will be on the new line.

The new stations are Castenada, in Cimmaron County, Okla; Bisonte, Ramp and Frick, in Baca County, Colorado; Ruxton and Gilpin in Bent County, Colorado. The new railroad touches the old town of Campo, in Baca County, Colorado, and has been built through Springfield, Baca County, Colo., seat, which is on the Santa Fe-Pritchett branch of the Santa Fe.

The new line will be turned over for operation February 1.

The new town of Castenada was named for an officer-historian in Coronado's army, which traversed much of this territory. Bisonte is named for the buffalo which roamed the country. Ramp is Spanish for a smooth country. Frick was named for a director of the Santa Fe. Ruxton is named for Capt. Frederick Ruxton, Colorado explorer. Gilpin was named in honor of the first governor of Colorado.

Completion of the Boise City-Las Animas line will save from 142 to 226 miles in the movement of freight over the Santa Fe to and from Colorado, from and to points in Texas, and on portions of the Santa Fe in Oklahoma and New Mexico. It will also shorten the distance from Amarillo to Denver and intermediate points somewhat over 25 miles compared with any other railroad.

While the Santa Fe lost 41 miles of lines from its rail system in 1935, it overcame that in 1936 and has 286 additional miles of lines. The small decrease in 1935 was due to minor adjustments in track. The mileage gains made in 1936 include the construction of the 111-mile line between Las Animas and Boise City, and an arrangement for the purchase of 216 miles of line from the Frisco Railroad, from Ft. Worth to Menard in Texas. These additions give the Santa Fe a total of 13,586 miles of railway.

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Witt and sons, Dean and Gean, went to Lubbock, Sunday to visit Mr. Witt's parents, Prof. and Mrs. M. E. Witt.

Mrs. Mac Rippetoe spent Christmas with her parents at Lipan, Texas, returning Sunday.

J. B. Adkins, one of Hamlin's esteemed pioneers, was in this week to renew his Herald for 1937. He said he had enjoyed a good Christmas, received many tokens of remembrance from loved ones, but was disappointed that his daughter, Mrs. Roy Stine of Vernon, could not come home. She was hindered by the death of Roy's father, who died Christmas day.

Mrs. L. E. Farris and son, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Newt, of near Slaton, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Gilreath and daughter, Miss Doris, of Bronte, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Owen and daughters, Misses Billy Christine and Macel Marie, and son, Russell, of Electra, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Johnson for Christmas. The guests were children and grandchildren of Mrs. Owen who makes her home with Mrs. Johnson.

The Herald learns that Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McLendon of the Neinda community have moved to Cisco, where they will make their home. They have a daughter, Mrs. Bookman, living in Cisco. Jim and Bryan McLendon also will be with them. This is one of the fine, pioneer families of that community and their host of friends regret to see them move. Mr. McLendon suffered a terrible hurt by a mule several years ago—lost one hand and most of his arm.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Anderson and children spent Christmas in Dallas visiting Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Andrus. Mrs. Harold Ashley and baby, a sister of Mrs. Anderson returned with them to spend a week.

Mrs. F. D. Well and daughters, Virginia, Phyllis and Patsy, visited Mr. Wells at Eunice for their Christmas. Mr. Wells is at the oil fields at Eunice. Mrs. Wells was accompanied by Mrs. Calvin Smith and son, Cal, Jr., to see Mr. Smith, who is also in the oil industry at Eunice. While at Midland they visited Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Donnell who were hurt in a car wreck recently. Mr. O'Donnell is reported doing well considering both knees were broken.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Morrison and Children of Ballinger, came up to spend Christmas with their parents Mr. and Mrs. John Hudson. Glenn is in the gin business in Ballinger.

Postmaster and Mrs. Harold Bonner enjoyed a reunion of Mrs. Bonner's people on Sunday. There were thirty-seven in the party, including Mr. and Mrs. Bonner. Those present were Mrs. Bonner's mother, Mrs. J. W. Clark of Sweetwater, and also from that city were, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clark and baby, Mrs. Owen Bonner and children and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Clark and wife. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Ammons of Westella, Mrs. Clarence Jordan of Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Chism and Children of Monument, New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Clark and children of McPhee, Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Lee McLain and their married daughter, Mrs. Melvin Bills and husband of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Mildred Neal and children of Dalhart, and Miss Opal Joe Williams of Roscoe.

C. H. Bessire was injured in a car wreck near Palo Pinto on Christmas Eve when his car collided with another on a curve. He suffered gashes on his head, shoulder and ribs. He was taken to a hospital in Mineral Wells for treatment. The Barrow ambulance went for him Saturday. If no complications set up he should be out in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. (Whitey) Griffin and children of Ackerly, in Martin County, came down to visit Mrs. Griffin's mother, Mrs. A. G. Hudson and others for Christmas. Mr. Griffin is with a gin company at Ackerly. To keep them acquainted with the ever changing Hamlin, they will get the Herald during 1937.

R. M. Newsom, father of W. E. Newsom, is improving after a serious illness of several months. He had three operations and considering his age, he stood them fine. He is beginning to sit up some these days.

Miss Mary Emily Eakin is spending the week in Dallas visiting her grandmother and other relatives.

MISS EMILY ALLEN MARRIED AUGUST 5

It might be interesting to many Hamlin people to know that Miss Emily Allen, former teacher of Home Economics in Hamlin, was married secretly on August 5, in Houston, Texas. This information is obtained by a social item appearing in a daily paper, dated at Sonora, Texas, Dec. 25, 1936, where Miss Allen was instructor in Home Makin, in the High School.

The lucky man is Mr. Warner E. Colvin, formerly of Stamford. He is connected with agricultural work, having been at the Woodlake Government farms while Miss Allen was there as director of home economics. Their home is to be at the Springbrook Farm near Georgetown, where Mr. Colvin is engaged in pecan culture and stock raising.

Miss Elsie Wienke enjoyed a family reunion in Hamlin at a Christmas tree and dinner at the Morgan Hotel. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wienke of Old Glory, her sisters, Miss Roxie of Levelland, and Mrs. Garrett Spitzer of Sagerton, were present. Also one brother, Roy of Sagerton. However, Leslie was unable to be here because of being injured in a recent auto accident.

Mrs. Burns Eakin enjoyed a Christmas visit from her mother, Mrs. E. T. McGee, and her sister, Mrs. Charles Netherson and husband and Miss Zedie McGee, all of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Easterwood, of Athens, Texas, two of the pioneer people of Hamlin, came for a Christmas visit with their sister, Mrs. Curtis Martin and family. Mr. Easterwood was once in the mercantile business here, a partner of the late D. J. Payne. He had with him a fair sized booklet, of early scenes of Hamlin—landmarks, now and many of them have passed from sight by removing remodeling, or fire. Easterwood was a great booster for Hamlin and still loves the little city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Rogers of San Antonio, came over with their sister, Mrs. R. F. Easterwood of Athens, to spend some of their Christmas in Hamlin with their sister, Mrs. Curtis Martin and family. Mr. Rogers is in the mechanical department of the San Antonio Light, one of the leading daily newspapers of Texas.

Mrs. S. D. (Red) Terrell returned just at Christmas from her mother, Mrs. M. J. Ligon, who was ill at her home in Wilson, Oklahoma.

Happy New Year Everybody

THE HERALD is glad to greet the people of Hamlin community on this NEW YEAR, 1937—we all turn a New Page, we have taken down the old calendars, posted up new signs, brushed off the cobwebs, and now we look out into a new page of life, a new year, with renewed aspirations and hopes.

To all our readers, everywhere, we want to say that we have been glad to operate the Herald for your benefit and pleasure during the past year and years. We want you people of the Hamlin community to know and to realize that the Herald is YOUR paper—we merely take the responsibility of keeping it going, by paying all the bills, taxes, operating, repairing and so on—all you need to do is to pay a wee bit each year in the way of subscriptions, and help us in giving you all the news, and publicity service possible for a small community of good people.

When we consider that the community is made up of people and their enterprises, and that all of us are interested in all and everything worthwhile in the community, we then realize the worth of the local newspaper. Every copy is worth far more than 2 cents, and some may be valued at many dollars.

May this year, 1937, be a delightful and prosperous period for each of you.

THE HERALD.

GOOD RESOLUTIONS

Let us all resolve: First, to attain the grace of silence; Second, to deem all fault-finding that does no good a sin, and to resolve, when we are happy ourselves, not to poison the atmosphere for our neighbors by calling on them to remark every painful and disagreeable feature of their daily life; Third, to practice the grace and virtue of praise.—Mrs. H. B. Stowe.

The trouble with the fellow who says that the young people are worse than they used to be, is that he is viewing the matter from two different points. He looks upon young people that he remembers about, through the eyes of youth and sympathy. He is looking upon the young people of today through the eyes of age. The view points are not the same.

MY NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

I resolve to be honest,
I resolve to be true,
To my friends and enemies
No matter what they do.

I resolve to keep on trying,
When failure looks me in the face,
To do my task each moment,
Let none other take my place.

I resolve to do my duty,
Whether great or small;
I resolve to help others,
When along life's highway they fall.

I resolve to be considerate
Of everyone I meet,
I resolve to keep on smiling,
When I meet defeat.

I resolve to be a good citizen,
By doing what is right,
I resolve to be a better Christian,
By keeping God's light.

I resolve to keep these resolutions,
That will make a better man,
I resolve to make each day count,
By doing the best I can.

WOMAN, 104, IS CLAIMED

San Marcos, Dec. 8. — Funeral services were held at Dripping Springs Monday for Mrs. Rebecca Johnson, 104, who came to Texas the year of the revolution.

She died Sunday at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Jennie Colley at San Antonio.

Mrs. Johnson was the mother of Mrs. A. J. Garrett, 81, and the grandmother of J. M. Garrett, both of San Marcos.

Born in Louisiana in 1832, Mrs. Johnson came to Texas at the age of four in 1836, settling with her parents in Walker county. Later she moved to Driftwood, Hays County.

Mrs. Johnson left Texas 35 years ago, moving to New Mexico. The past five years, however, she had lived with her granddaughter in San Antonio.

She was the mother of 14 children, five of who are still living. They are: Mrs. A. J. Garrett of San Marcos, Mrs. Cenia Miles of Neosho, Mo., Mrs. Becky Pruitt of Alamogordo, N. M., Mrs. Alice Woods of Engel, N. M., and Mrs. Willie Brown of California.—Austin American.

The above clipping was handed the Herald by K. Garrett of this city, who recently went to Eden and San Angelo, and failed to get to the funeral of his famous grandmother. Mr. Garrett says there were five generations of Mrs. Johnson's family at the time of her death.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hall of Hubbard were here Monday to visit their nephew, D. A. Brown and family.

Strength During MIDDLE LIFE

Strength is extra-important for women going through the change of life. Then the body needs the very best nourishment to fortify it against the changes that are taking place.

In such cases, Cardui has proved helpful to many women. It increases the appetite and aids digestion, favoring more complete transformation of food into living tissue, resulting in improved nutrition and building up and strengthening of the whole system.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Shanks and children, Rex Jr. and Ann, of Laredo, Texas, and Miss Margaret Robbins, of Clyde, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Crowley over the week-end. Mrs. Shanks is a sister of Mrs. Crowley.

The Herald had a pretty card from Martin McCain this week saying that they are showing Mrs. McCain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Sauls, the sights. The card showed the beautiful "Bil Milam" hotel—garden terrace, with the beauty of flowers n'everything.

Miss Oma Lee Herd, who is in training at the Abilene Hospital, spent this week at home with her father, Bob Herd, and Hamlin friends.

Earl Temple, of Lamesa, was here Friday and Saturday to visit his father, W. N. Temple, who has been ill for several weeks.

BIG CAROL BENSON

Carol Benson, one of the Cowboys' most dependable ends, will be playing his last game for Hardin-Simmons university when the Cowboys meet the Muckers in El Paso Jan. 1.

Benson, a contribution from Hamlin, is one of the fourteen veterans to be graduated next spring and one of the three powerful ends to be lost to Hardin-Simmons.

In addition to stellar roles on the gridiron Benson has been one of Kimbrough's mainstays on the basketball court and faces one more good season in the gym before graduation. Kimbrough has been saving his football boys from possible injury on the court but after the El Paso Sunbowl game will give them free rein.

Paralleling his prowess on the basketball floor is the record of which Kimbrough spoke recently when he said of Benson, "Consistently good at the closing in on loose passes. A lot of ability and fight—well directed."

HUMBLE DEEDS

larger in God's sight than appar-

TESTED RECIPE

By Frances Lee Barton

BLESSED is the dessert with the light touch—the dessert which is suitable for the last course of a substantial dinner, yet which makes a genuine contribution to the nourishment of the meal. A Banana Bavarian
Cream slips down so easily—
it tastes so good
—and it's real food! You'll find it specially delicious if you serve it with a tart fruit sauce—a cherry sauce for instance.

Banana Bavarian Cream
1 package lemon-flavored gelatin;
2 pint hot water, 1/4 teaspoon salt;
1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup heavy cream,
5 bananas.
Dissolve gelatin in hot water.
Add salt and sugar. Chill until cold and syrupy. Fold in cream, whip only until thick and shiny, but not stiff. Crush bananas to pulp with silver fork and fold at once into gelatin mixture. Chill until slightly thickened. Turn into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve with or without sauce of tart fruit.

Curiosa Americana

Monroe (?) Doctrine

WE CALL it the "Monroe Doctrine"
—that document which says
"Hands off!" when foreign nations
seem covetous of more land in either North or South America. But it might
more properly be called the "Adams
Doctrine," for John Quincy Adams, Monroe's secretary of state, was the man who saw the need for it and formulated it even though it did appear in Monroe's handwriting in his message to congress in December, 1823.

But if you want to go back even further for its origin, then a pretty Russian baroness comes in for her share of responsibility. Her name was
Barbara Juliane von Vlettinghoff-Scheel
and she was the youthful wife of elderly Baron von Krudener, Russian ambassador to Berlin. Also she became the sweetheart of Alexander I, czar of all
the Russias, and under her spell he supported her scheme for a Holy Alliance
by which, she believed, the world could
be run according to the principles of Christian charity.

All the sovereigns of Europe, except the pope, the king of England and the
sultan of Turkey, joined the Holy Alliance, thereby pledging themselves to
aid each other when the need arose.
When Spain lost her American colonies and called upon the Holy Alliance to help her get them back, George
Canning, British foreign minister, proposed that the United States join with England in opposing the plan to reconquer the Spanish Americas.

John Quincy Adams, however, didn't want the United States to "come in as a cock-boat in the wake of the British man-of-war." So he proposed that an independent declaration of policy be issued. It was the famous Monroe Doctrine which brought about the collapse of the Holy Alliance.

They say Helen of Troy had "the face that launched a thousand ships."
But the pretty face of Baroness von Krudener has been responsible for
keeping the fleets of the United States,
for the last century, ready to back up
the "Monroe Doctrine" which was formulated by John Quincy Adams.
